Who is responsible for the financial services provided?

New Horizons is responsible for the financial services provided including the distribution of this FSG.

Relationships or associations that exist which might influence us in providing the financial service

New Horizons is not controlled by any financial institution/s such as a fund manager, bank, insurance company or trade/credit union. None of these institutions has a vested interest in our business and are not therefore in a position to influence us in the provision of advice.

Information we need from you

We expect that you will provide us with accurate information that we request including your personal objectives, details of your current financial situation and any other relevant information, so that we have a reasonable basis on which to provide you with advice.

We expect that you will use our advice to enable you to make informed financial decisions.

As a financial service provider, we have an obligation under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Finance Act to verify your identity and the source of any funds. This means that we will ask you to present identification documents such as passports and driver's license. We will also retain copies of this information. We assure you that this information will be held securely.

Possible consequences of not providing this information

You are of course at liberty to decline to provide some or all of this information, but if you do not provide it, we may not be able to:

- Provide you with the product or service you want,
- Manage or administer your product or service
- Verify your identity, which may not protect you against fraud,
- Advise you of other products or services that may better meet your financial needs and lifestyle goals.

Protecting your Privacy

Protecting your privacy is essential to our business. Your file, containing your profile, personal objectives, financial circumstances and our recommendations, is kept securely.

Giving instructions

You can instruct us by telephone, fax, e-mail or in person.

Remuneration, commission, fees or other benefits we receive in relation to providing financial services and how are they calculated

New Horizons advisers are remunerated through the fees and commissions that you are charged. To assist you in making an informed decision, your adviser will discuss with you and agree on any fees payable before providing a service. The Corporations Act requires us to fully disclose all fees and charges, so if you are in doubt please ask us to explain. You may be charged a fee for the services we provide, or we may be paid a commission or brokerage or a combination of the two may apply.

All fees and commissions are payable to the Licensee New Horizons, which will be as per the schedule contained in the adviser profile. Details of the fees and commission for each product are contained in the Product Disclosure Statements (PDS) that your adviser will provide. Your adviser will also provide full details of fees and commissions in your Statement of Advice.

Alternative remuneration (Non-monetary benefits)

New Horizons and your financial adviser keep a register detailing certain non-monetary benefits received eg benefits valued between $100 and $300, and those that relate to genuine education or training and technology software or support.

You can view an extract of the register by contacting your financial adviser. Please be aware that you may be charged for the cost of providing this information to you.

Information we maintain on file and for how long

We need to hold all information you give us for a period of 7 years. You can gain access to your personal information that we hold about you. This is subject to some exceptions allowed by law. We will give you reasons if we deny access. You can find out how to access your information by reading our Privacy Policy, available by contacting us

Compensation arrangements in place and compliant

It should be noted that New Horizons has Professional Indemnity Insurance in place to cover us for the financial services that we provide. We understand that it is adequate to meet our requirements as a financial services licensee and meets the provisions of RG126. The policy includes coverage for claims made in relation to the conduct of representatives/employees who no longer work for us (but who did at the time of the relevant conduct).

We will provide you with the associated risks of certain financial products/strategies

We will explain to you any significant risks of financial products and strategies, which we recommend to you. If we do not do so, you should ask us to explain the risks to you.

We are committed to implementing and promoting a privacy policy, which will ensure the privacy and security of your personal information. A copy of our privacy policy can be requested at any time.

What should you do if you have a complaint?

We are committed to providing quality advice to our clients. This commitment extends to providing accessible complaint resolution mechanisms for our clients. If you have any complaint about the service provided to you, you should take the following steps:

1. Contact your adviser immediately.
2. If your complaint is not satisfactorily resolved within 7 days please contact New Horizons within 7 days via phone no 02 9188 3669 or put it in writing and send to Suite 204, 111 Harrington Street, Sydney, NSW 2000.

If we cannot reach a satisfactory resolution within a further 45 days you can send your complaint to, The Australian Financial Complaints Authority, (AFCA) at PO Box 3 Melbourne Victoria VIC 3001. Their free call number is 1800 931 678. About Thomas Ha

Experience	Over 3 years industry experience
Qualifications	DFP, ADFP
Memberships

I am authorised by New Horizons Financial Services to offer you the following services:

Provide financial product advice and to deal in a financial product by arranging for a financial product to be acquired, varied or disposed of in respect of the following financial products:

- Deposit and payment products
- Debentures, stocks or bonds
- Investment life insurance products
- Life risk insurance products
- Managed investments schemes
- Securities
- Standard margin lending facility
- Superannuation

We offer clients a selected range of payment options such as bank cheque, credit card and deduction from your investment account.

We'll provide you with details of all fees, commissions, or other benefits we may receive when we provide advice to you and, where possible, will give actual dollar amounts. If this information cannot be provided, we'll provide an example of how the calculation works.

Even if you don't receive personal financial advice from us, you can still request the details of any fees or other benefits we receive in relation to any other financial service we provide you.

Sometimes in the process of providing advice, our financial advisers may receive benefits from product providers.

Financial Plan Preparation Fee

We may agree to charge you a fee, depending on the time we spend developing your plan and the value of funds you invest. If you choose to pay a fee we can agree to rebate to you any initial commission we would otherwise receive. Our current fees are based on an amount of $250 per hour. The time to prepare a financial plan may take 10 hours, which at the above hourly rate would be $2,500.

We may invoice you for a fee when you receive our written recommendations.

Managed Investment Products

We do not accept commissions/fees from managed investment providers as our time and expertise is covered by an ongoing fee based on the value of the funds you invest and the financial products you use. This fee can be asset based and paid directly from your investment portfolio.

Alternatively, it may be a direct debit payment from your bank account or invoiced to you, depending on the arrangement you have agreed upon with your adviser.

 All fees and charges will be clearly disclosed to you in writing by your adviser at the time the advice is provided in your Statement of Advice.
